

WOMEN GAVE BRYAN AND PEACE PLAN

New York Delegation Has Interview With the Secretary of State.

INTERNATIONAL BOARD IS PART OF THE PROPOSAL

Idea Was First Launched in Address to Neutral Nations at Political Union Meeting.

A delegation from the Woman's Political Union of New York had an interview with Secretary Bryan today at the State Department, by appointment, and presented a plea from women for peace and a "constructive plan to prevent war."

The delegation consisted of Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, president of the union; Mrs. Emanuel Einstein and Mrs. Albert J. Hill, all of New York.

Women's Plan Set Forth.

The announcement made by this delegation concerning their visit is: "The plan is for the women of all other neutral nations to meet immediately and lay the foundation of an international commission, or a world government, with an international court and an international police to enforce its decrees."

The idea was first launched in the address to the women of neutral nations, which was passed at the Carnegie Hall meeting arranged for Mrs. Patrick Lawrence October 30, and since that time has been passed by the various branches of the Women's Political Union throughout New York State.

Mme. Schwimmer's Address.

An address developing the same plea for peace was made by Mme. Rosika Schwimmer, secretary of the International Woman Suffrage Association, on "Women and the War" in the Woodward & Lothrop auditorium yesterday afternoon. She was speaking under the auspices of the women's movement for constructive peace, recently organized here as a result of Mrs. Patrick Lawrence's broaching that scheme at an address in the Studio House, where she was the guest of Mrs. John Jay White.

"I pray God night and day that the United States will prevent Europe from committing suicide," said Mme. Schwimmer.

The United States, by failing to step in and stop the war, will write into history the final and most horrible chapter of the world's greatest horror.

United States Can Stop War.

"President Wilson today is the most respected man in the world," she said, "and Mr. Wilson, backed by the public opinion of the greatest neutral world power, can stop the war."

"The United States must not offer mediation timidly, but must demand satisfaction and demand immediate cessation of hostilities with a force that will make Europe's monarchs bow."

Mme. Schwimmer's address was one of the most brilliant and successful since she started speaking in this country in September.

Sent to Tell War Story.

"When the war started," she said, "I was in London, press representative of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance. The silence of the censor was at once imposed, but the women's organizations of sixteen countries succeeded in uniting in an effort to stop the war."

"They knew they could not get word through the censor to the outside world, so they sent me to tell the story. I saw President Wilson as soon as I arrived, and he approved my mission—to enlist the public opinion of this nation in the cause for peace—he said he could not grant my prayer."

Impromptu Meeting Is Held.

After the lecture an impromptu meeting of the woman suffragists in the audience was held, in which the sentiments expressed by Mme. Schwimmer were endorsed and plans made for an organization to carry them out. These plans will be submitted at the mass meeting of suffragists in January. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Wesley Martin Storer.

Secretary Bryan also met by appointment today Miss Anne Martin, president of the Nevada Suffrage Association. The meeting was arranged by Senator Newlands in compliment to Miss Martin, who directed the campaign of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage as waged against the Democratic candidates for Congress.

Miss Martin urged the Secretary to throw his influence in support of the national suffrage amendment.

MARTIN T. DRYDEN HURT

AS AUTO HITS STREET CAR

Real Estate Operator Much Improved

Today, However—Charges Against

Frederick Conner, Driver.

Suffering from a fracture of the skull, broken left arm, cut and bruised right arm and numerous other bruises and cuts, Martin T. Dryden, real estate operator, 1331 10th street northwest, was taken to George Washington University Hospital from 14th street and Thomas Circle Monday afternoon. He was injured as a result of a collision between his automobile and a street car.

Frederick Conner, twenty-eight years old, 1315 Rhode Island avenue northwest, who was operating the automobile, suffered less serious injuries, and was taken to Emergency Hospital.

Dryden and Conner had been on a business trip to the northwest section, and were returning to Washington when the accident happened. Dryden's car ran against the end of a southbound Capital Traction car on the west side of the circle, and both Dryden and Conner were thrown to the pavement.

Dryden was unconscious when picked up and taken to the hospital in an automobile belonging to Dr. G. W. Cook, while Conner was taken to Emergency Hospital by John W. Day, 1319 N. Street. Conner received a deep scalp wound and suffered from shock.

Conner told physicians at the hospital that he could not recall how the accident happened. He was suffering from shock and the physicians deemed it advisable to send him to a ward as soon as the deep laceration in his head had been sewed.

It was said at the hospital this afternoon that Dryden's condition was much improved and hope for his recovery was held out to his family and friends.

Conner is still at Emergency Hospital. Charges of colliding, assault and operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor have been preferred against him.
